

Our commitment is to keep the heart of every Mumbaikar beating with joy.

"As the doors slam shut, anxious thoughts enter my mind. I walk up and down the silent corridor, nervously chewing my nails. In the cold of the night, a stream of sweat runs down my face. I take a long breath and say a quick prayer.

A minute seems like an hour. And finally the doors open. I hold my breath. And then, I see a smiling nurse holding my bundle of joy! I look up at the heavens and let out a sigh of relief."
