CRUISE DRUG BUST

Fresh FIR filed against NCB's witness Gosavi for cheating

VALLABH OZARKAR
MUMBAI, OCTOBER 18

ANOTHER CASE of cheating and forgery has been registered against Kiran Gosavi, the independent witness of the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) in the Cordelia cruise drug case that saw several people, including the son of actor Shah Rukh Khan, being arrested earlier this month.

The complaint in the latest case, which takes the number of FIRs against Gosavi to four, was registered three years ago.

However, the FIR was lodged only on Sunday.

Gosavi's name first cropped up after the alleged drug bust when his photograph was registered against Kiran Gosavi, the independent witness of the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) in the Cordelia cruise drug case that saw several people, including the son of actor Shah Rukh Khan, being arrested earlier this month.

NCB officials then again clarified that Gosavi, a private detective and owner of a placement agency, was one of the 10 independent witnesses in the Cordelia case. The latest FIR against Gosavi has been registered by Kelwa police in Palghar for cheating, forgery and criminal breach of trust based on the complaint by two youngsters.

According to the police, the victims in the case, Utkarsh Tare and Adarsh Keni, had come in contact with Gosavi in 2018 and were allegedly duped by him of Rs 165 lakh under the pretext of finding them job in hotels in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

According to the complaint, Gosavi had allegedly handed over fake tourist visas and flight tickets to the duo after taking money from them. When the victims went to the airport to board their flight, they were turned away by a CISF official after checking their documents and tickets. Tare and Keni then lodged a complaint with the Kelwa police. However, the police had not taken any action or filed criminal offence against Gosavi even after three years. "We have registered an FIR and our probe has started," said a senior police officer.

Water works dept to retain 3 km track of motor trolley as heritage

YOGESH NAIK
MUMBAI, OCTOBER 18

THE WATER works department of BMC, which has a motor trolley system to manage the pipeline network, has decided to retain 3 kilometres of the track between Powai and Bandrup as part of the city's heritage.

At one point of time, the water works department had over

A motor trolley.

100 km of motor trolley system from Dharavi to Tansa lake in Shahapur tehsil of Thane district. There were depots at Chhatkopar, Powai, Kapurbawdi and Tansa.

The water works department is one of the oldest establishments of Mumbai. The British had built dams over Vihar and Powai lakes and they also constructed Tansa dam in Shahapur tehsil of Thane. The trolley system was used to pump pipelines from Tansa to Dharavi.

Deputy hydraulic engineer Rajesh Tamhane told The Indian Express, "At present we have five motor trolleys at Chhatkopar and two in Powai carshed. Of these, five are in working condition. We are trying to lay 3 km of tracks from Powai to Mulund and maintain it as part of our heritage."

3 killed in pile-up on expressway

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, OCTOBER 18

THREE PERSONS were killed and another injured in a vehicle pile-up on the Mumbai-bound Lane of the Mumbai-Pune Expressway near Khopoli on Monday. The deceased have been identified as Ranak Murgane (28) resident of Khar west, Ishad Siddiqui (30) from Bandra (west) and Akram Khan (48) from Uttar Pradesh.

Police said the incident took place around 5:30 am in the Bhor Ghat where repair work of the stretch is going on. It looks like the driver of a poultry van, Akram Khan, lost control of the vehicle and collided with six vehicles (trailers, cars and a luxury bus), resulting in pile-up of vehicles for over three hours. "All the vehicles were badly damaged and four people, including the driver of the poultry van, were grievously injured. Murgane and Siddiqui were in a Honda Amaze car, which got crushed between two vehicles. Khan's van collided with a luxury bus from behind and he too, sustained major injuries," said a police officer.

While Khan and the other two were declared dead by the doctors on arrival in a hospital, the cleaner was hospitalized.
