Charred body of medical officer recovered, police register case of accidental death

SAGAR RAJPUT
MUMBAI, JANUARY 28

THE CHARRED body of a 38-year-old medical officer working with the Nashik Municipal Corporation's Morwadi hospital was found dead inside her car, also gutted by fire, late on Tuesday. The police said the deceased has been identified as Savarna Vaze.

The vehicle was found near Khed Bhairav village in Nashik Rural, said the police. Wadiwarhe police station, under which the area falls, has registered a case of accidental death and is probing it.

Police inspector Anil Pawar, in-charge of Wadiwarhe Police Station said, "At around 11 pm on Tuesday, we received the information from a local that a vehicle was burning near Khed Bhairav village. We went to the spot and found that a person was also trapped inside the car." The vehicle's number plate was also burnt so the police checked the engine number and the chassis number of the Maruti Ritz car for getting owner details. "We got the registration number from the regional transport office through the engine and chassis number after which we reached their house in Igatpuri when we came to know that they have shifted to Ambad in Nashik. By the time we reached their home, we came to know that a missing report was lodged by the deceased's husband at Ambad police station," said Pawar.

Sandeep Vaze, who is a civil engineer and works as a contractor, was taken to the spot where he identified the body through the car and other valuables on the body. According to Sandeep's statement, Vaze would usually reach home by 9 pm every day.

On Tuesday, he called Sandeep in the evening but he was busy so he didn't take the call. She then messaged him, saying she would be late from work. When she did not reach home by 11 pm and her phone was switched off, so Sandeep informed her parents and subsequently checked with the hospital authorities. When he learnt that Vaze had left the hospital by 8.30 pm, he reported the matter at Ambad police station.

The post-mortem was conducted while viscera and DNA samples have been collected by the forensic science laboratory officials.

"As of now, we have registered an accidental death report. In case the post-mortem report points to murder, we would register a case of murder," said Pawar.

Vaze is survived by her parents, husband, a daughter and a son.

No ambulance, parents take home son's body on bike

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 28

PARENTS CARRIED the body of their six-year-old son on a bike for 40 km till they reached their village in Palghar on January 26, due to the alleged refusal of the Cottage Hospital in Jawhar to provide the family an ambulance.

The relatives of the boy have alleged that ambulance drivers allegedly refused to take the body, as the parents did not have sufficient money to pay for the ride. Following the incident, three ambulance drivers have been suspended.

Yuvraj Paradhi, the father of the deceased, said that on January 22, his son Ajay was admitted to a private hospital in Nashik's Triambakeshwar with fever. A day later, the doctors asked Yuvraj to shift the child to a government hospital. Following this, Ajay was shifted first to Mokhada government hospital and then to the Cottage hospital in Jawhar taluka on January 26. The child, however, passed away the same day.

The relatives have alleged that when family inquired about an ambulance or horse to carry the body, they were told by the hospital to pay for it. As Yuvraj did not have the money, the family took the body to their residence on a bike.

District health officials, however, have claimed that while the hospital does not have an ambulance of its own, the hospital authorities had arranged for an ambulance but the family had by then left with the body.

The medical superintendent of the hospital, however, in a letter to the district civil surgeon, said: "The patient died at 9.15 pm. After the death was reported to the medical superintendent, the medical superintendent instructed the on-duty staff to take the (ambulance) driver and take the body to the village."

"The ambulance driver arrived a little late. The relatives may have thought that the body would be sent for autopsy and hence, took away the body in a hurry," the letter added.

In Dongri, cop held for demanding, taking Rs 18k bribe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 28

TWO PERSONS, including an assistant police inspector, were caught for allegedly demanding and accepting a bribe of Rs 18,000 from a man in Dongri. ACP officials said the assistant police inspector, identified as Sanjeev Nimbalkar, demanded money for not taking legal action against the complainant's cousin against whom he claimed he had evidence of being part of a matka (gambling) racket.

Nimbalkar was posted at the Dongri police station in south Mumbai. "He claimed he has evidence against the complainant's brother that the latter is involved in a matka racket following which he demanded Rs 20,000 for not taking any legal action against him," said an officer.

As the complainant did not wish to give the bribe, he went to ACP headquarters in Worli and submitted a complaint application.

The same evening, Nimbalkar was caught accepting a bribe of Rs 18,000 along with his accomplice Mohamed Mansuri who allegedly mediated the bribe deal," said an officer.

An ACP officer said soon after, they learnt that Nimbalkar is infected with Covid. "He has not been formally arrested, instead, he has been admitted to a hospital. His accomplice Mansuri has been arrested," said an officer.
