3 THE CITY

Huge turnout witnessed as vaccine centres resume operation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

IN A relief to residents, vaccination at most of the inoculation centres that were closed down last week due to shortage of vaccines resumed on Monday. People were seen queuing up in large numbers at the 14 centres, out of the total 135 centres in the city, to receive the anti-Covid shots.

While most of the civic-run centres resumed inoculation on Monday morning, the private centres began the drive late afternoon after a delay in receiving the vaccine stock.

In Mumbai, a large number of people were seen gathered outside the Shabadi Hospital in Kandivli, where police had to step in to manage the crowd. Similar crowds were witnessed at Dahisar Jumbo facility and Nesco centre in Goregaon.

"Some private centres are expected to start with a slight delay. In addition to these, few more CVCs (Covid vaccination centres) are collecting their stocks and will be functional by tomorrow (Tuesday)," the civic body tweeted.

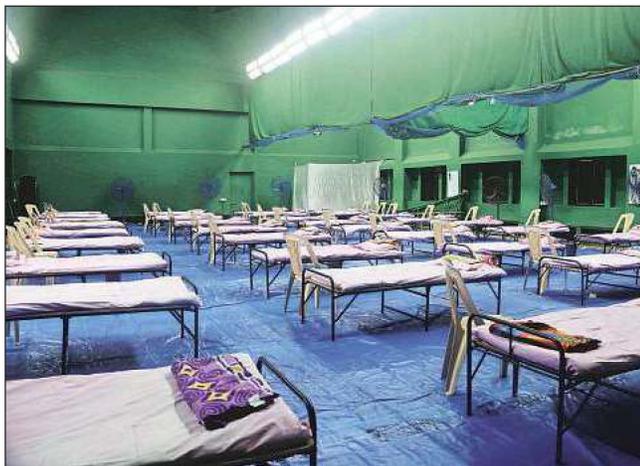

Due to shortage of vaccines, more than half of the vaccination centres in the city were shut last week, with preference being given to those coming for the second dose over those arriving for their first shot.

The Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) on Sunday received 15 lakh doses of Covishield and 8,000 doses of Covaxin. The BMC said the current stock will last for three days till April 28. Phase 3 of vaccination will commence from May 1.

Due to the closure of a majority of centres, the number of citizens being inoculated in a day had last week dropped to 20,000-30,000 from 50,000.

There are 135 vaccination centres in the city — 45 at civic-run hospitals, 17 in government-run hospitals and 73 at private hospitals.

Till Monday, the BMC had vaccinated 3.93 lakh people with both doses and 18.89 lakh people with just the first dose.

Dip in fresh Covid cases in Mumbai third day in a row

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

FOR THE third day in a row, Mumbai has shown a dip in fresh Covid-19 cases, with its positivity rate on a slow but steady decline from over 17% per cent until a fortnight ago to 13.6 per cent now. On Monday the city recorded 3,876 cases, down from 5,542 on Sunday and 5,888 on Saturday.

While civic officials said they suspect Mumbai has crossed its second peak and will see a consistent decline in Covid-19 cases, the significant drop in fresh infections cannot be solely attributed to that. Between Saturday and Sunday, Mumbai's daily tests fell steeply — from 40,298 to 28,328, thus leading to fewer positive cases. Until a week ago the city was testing 55,000-60,000 people a day.

Civic officials said the daily testing numbers tend to reduce over the weekend and pick up again through the week. Executive health officer Dr Mangala Gomare said they need to observe if the declining trend continues this week to draw analysis.

The positivity rate — the number of people testing positive out of total tests — had crossed 20 per cent in March. By April second week it came down to 17-19 per cent, and by fourth week further down to below 15 per cent. The positivity rate is also an indicator to measure the spread of infection in community.

On Monday, Mumbai reported death of 71 people due to Covid-19, taking the toll to 12,861.

The total active cases now stand at 72,230. Active infections have also reduced by nearly 17,000 from 89,125 cases in a fortnight.

Dr Shashank Joshi, member of state task force, congratulated BMC on Monday and said "assess triage and transfer and management" strategy has turned the situation around in city.

Maharashtra too noted a dip in fresh cases, with 48,700 new cases reported on Monday. Deaths in absolute numbers, however, continue to be high. At least 524 deaths were reported by the state.

In the last three days, Maharashtra has reported over 2,000 Covid deaths, its highest since last year. The state has also reported for 65,284 Covid deaths. In addition, 1,877 deaths of Covid patients were attributed to fatality due to other reasons. Of them at least 1,455 were reported from Mumbai.

Pune reported two deaths, Thane 8, Panvel 22, Raigad 20, Aurangabad 57, Nagpur 34, Beed 22 and Nanded 21 on Monday.

Cloud over timely start of May 1 drive in Mumbai

TABASSUM BARNAGARWALA
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

THE WORLD'S richest municipal corporation has begun preparing for the roll out of phase 3 of the anti-Covid vaccination drive for the 18 to 44 years age group, though it is unlikely to begin on May 1.

Dr Mangala Gomare, BMC Executive Health Officer, said that from 58, BMC will double government vaccination centres to over 110. "We plan to start a vaccination centre in every electoral ward. Discussions are on to start centres in community and marriage halls, municipal schools, industries with clinics or health posts," she added.

Officials, however, worry about the biggest constraint — doubling the number of healthcare workers for vaccination. The healthcare system in Mumbai is already strained with over 72,000 active Covid-19 cases.

Gomare said the city has over 200 vaccination booths, with each having four to five support staffers, including security guard, data entry operator and vaccination staff. The number of centres are doubled, the staff requirement will shoot up from roughly 1,000 to 2,000.

The BMC on Monday said that all private hospitals will have to provide independent orders for vaccines and ensure adequate storage and cold chain facilities, enough manpower to conduct immunisation and experts to deal with adverse events in their centres.

Until now, the civic body was distributing limited number of doses — enough for two to three days — to hospitals from a central storage facility in Parel.

The civic body also asked private hospitals to apply for registration as vaccination centres. Those already registered will continue to function as vaccination centres.

The biggest challenge is to ensure adequate supplies. The corporation is standing by for a green light from the state government to procure its own vaccines from the open market. It is already in talks with the two domestic manufacturers, Serum Institute of India and Bharat Biotech, and also preparing to issue global tenders for multinational brands.

"The central government has given a go-ahead to import vaccines. Based on what the Maharashtra government says, BMC is in a position to procure. We are waiting for clarity from the state on whether it will be able to supply so much of stock to us," a top civic official said.

Dr Sheela Jagtap, immunisation officer in BMC, said while preparation for global tenders are underway, the process can take time.

As on Monday, Mumbai has 1.5 lakh vaccine doses, which will last till Wednesday. On Sunday, 94 vaccination centres were shut due to non-availability of vaccines. Senior BMC officials said guidelines from the Union government on the next phase of vaccination from May 1 drive came late, giving "very little time to prepare".

In series of meetings on Monday and Tuesday, the civic body is working on a parallel plan of action to procure vaccines independently of the state government.

Mumbai has over 90 lakh people aged above 18 years. Of them, 52 lakh are in the 18 to 44 age and 38 lakh above 45 years old. While the Union government will provide vaccines for the above 45 years age group, the state and BMC will have to procure doses for the remaining 52 lakh people. Keeping 10 per cent vaccine wastage into account, the city needs to procure 10 crore vaccines for the two doses to be administered to the 18 to 44 age group.

Register 10 violation cases daily, police told

SAGAR RAJPUT
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

TO INTENSIFY the crackdown on lockdown violators, higher officials in the Mumbai police department have instructed all senior police inspectors of 94 police stations across the city to register at least 10 cases of violation every day.

The authorities said the instruction was issued to ensure that the norms set out by the state government are strictly followed by citizens.

Sources in the department said that senior police inspectors were also directed to update the reader of their respective deputy commissioner of police on the number of cases registered the previous day by them every day and the (DCP) readers are to forward the information to the Mumbai police commissionerate.

"If we fail to register 10 cases of violation in a day, then we have been told to present ourselves at the office of our superior at noon the following day," said a police officer on the condition of anonymity.

When contacted, Mumbai police department spokesperson DCP S Chaitanya said, "Instructions have been given to increase enforcement to make the lockdown more effective."

He denied that targets were given to police stations on filing cases. However, when The Indian Express forwarded the instructions that police stations

Fire alarm at Virar Covid hospital was not working: Police

JAYPRAKASH NAIDU
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

THE COVID Hospital in Virar, in which 15 out of 17 ICU patients died in a fire last week, had a fire alarm system in place but it was not in a working condition at the time of the blaze on April 24, the Crime Branch of Mira-Bhayandar Vasai-Virar police, which is investigating the case, has said.

Besides, the Vijay Vallabh Hospital did not have any sprinklers in the midst of the police. "We believe there should be a heavy penalty on every violator, so that we can collect the fine and let them go from spot," said an officer, adding that registering an FIR would expose them more to the virus.

"If we get hold of a violator, we have to take him to the police station, record his statement and then the offence is registered. We have to then release them on bail, and it takes hours to complete this procedure. It will put us at risk," added another officer. Police officials also said they fear that such targets will increase their risk of catching the infection.

"Even if we are ready to take the virus, we don't want our family members to get infected," said another officer.

132 new flooding spots in two years add to Mumbai's monsoon woes

SANJANA BHALERAO
MUMBAI, APRIL 26

THE MONSOON flooding in Mumbai last year reached areas that were never flooded before. Apart from low-lying areas and chronic flooding spots, rainwater gushed inside gated housing societies in South Mumbai that had previously never been affected.

As Mumbai witnesses a spate of construction activity, the city has also seen an increase in flooding spots. Twenty-four new spots have emerged in the island city since last year's monsoon. According to data from Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC), there are 139 flooding spots that need to be tackled this monsoon.

Every year since 2015, ahead of the monsoon 24 ward officers prepare a list of the flooding spots and a specific plan and allocate a budget to tackle each spot. If vehicular and pedestrian traffic is completely disrupted after rainfall of 50-60 mm in an hour, the civic body lists the area as a flooding spot.

Other than temporary measures like dewatering pumps and clearing debris, ward officers are asked to prepare long-term remedial measures along with different agencies like Railways, MMRDA, MMRCL, SRA. Remedial measures include re-modelling of draining channel, increasing the areas' water absorption, addition of floodgates.

In the last two years, flooding spots have increased by 132. This year, there are 405 flooding spots, of which 176 are in the western suburbs and 139 in the island city. Till last year, there were 386 such spots and they year before that 273.

Activists and experts point to infrastructure projects like the coastal road project and metro work as reasons, but the administration emphasises that extreme weather events should be factored in.

The civic body blames the unprecedented amount of rainfall, development works including metro construction, housing projects, for the increase in flooding spots.

P Velrusu, Additional Municipal Commissioner (Projects) and in charge of the stormwater drain department, said, "In addition to development works, the city has witnessed unprecedented excessive rain in a short period. This has led to emergence of new flooding spots."

According to a study by the CEWA, a Delhi-based think tank, Mumbai has witnessed a three-fold increase in the frequency of extreme flood events between 1969 and 2019.

In a meeting last week, the BMC has alerted MMRCL on ensuring a flood-free monsoon.

Dr Babu Copinathrao Pawar, Joint Metropolitan Commissioner, MMRDA, said, "While long-term measures are planned and implemented by the BMC, we will assure that no waterlogging is caused by construction work undertaken by the MMRDA."

STP case: SAT upholds Sebi order against 63 Moons

PRUSS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, April 26

THE SECURITIES APPELLATE Tribunal (SAT) has dismissed an appeal filed by 63 Moons Technology, challenging a Sebi order that disallowed it from providing straight through processing (STP) gate services. Sebi had in December 2020 rejected 63 Moons' application seeking renewal of approval to provide such services on the basis of "fit and proper" criteria. # Farmer body opposes move to bring staggered FRP payments

FE BUREAU
Pune, April 26

FARMER BODY SWABHIMANU Shekhar Sanghata (SSS) has warned the Maharashtra government against supporting the Centre's proposal to offer staggered final and remunerative price (FRP) payments to farmers. The Centre has constituted a high-level committee to look into a recommendation made by the Niti Aayog to implement a model of staggered payments to sugarcane growers and has asked state governments to submit their suggestions on this issue. Gujarat follows this model for making cane payments to farmers. "The Centre has called for suggestions from the state governments. The Centre has already passed three farm laws which are not in the interest of farmers. The state government has also constituted a panel to study this issue. However, the committee does not have any farmer representatives," Raju Shetty, founder of the SSS, said. Shetty warned that his organisation will be forced to take action and come down on the streets if the Maharashtra government submits suggestions in favour of the recommendations made by the Niti Aayog. According to the Niti Aayog, if farmers are paid 60% of the sugarcane FRP upfront, it will cover their entire A2-FL (farm loan) cost, along with providing a little margin over the same. The A2 cost for farmers covers all paid-out costs that are directly incurred by the farmer on seeds, fertilisers, pesticides, hired labor, leased-in land, fuel, irrigation, etc, whereas A2-FL cost includes the A2 cost along with the value of unpaid family labour.
