Before quitting, M Raipur director told Govt: Concerns about autonomy

ABHINYA HARIGOVIND NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 7 OVER A month before he resigned in July, Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Raipur Director Ram Kumar Kakani wrote to the Ministry of Education seeking guidance on a matter that "raised significant concerns about administrative autonomy and operational integrity", The Indian Express has learnt.

the chairman of the institute's board of governors, citing "constriction of professional space" to discharge his duties. The resignation followed a sequence of events triggered by disciplinary action taken during Kakani's tenure against a faculty member over allegations of academic impropriety, which was struck down in court, records show. In his resignation letter, Kakani wrote about a perceived "constriction of professional space" over the IIM Act, 2017, and the HR policies "in vogue" at the institute earlier. Kakani, a well-known academic, demics, the third IIM director to have resigned in the past four years over differences with the board's chairperson, after two IIMs (Katwa heads Anju Seth (2021) and Uttam Kumar Sarkar (2023)). Since then, he has taken charge as Vice Chancellor of RV University in Bengaluru — he has previously taught at IIM Kozhikode, XLRI Jamshedpur and IBSNAA Mussoorie. Kakani was appointed to lead IIM Raipur in 2022 and on July 21, 2025, two years before the end of his tenure. The Raipur institute's board accepted the resignation on July 22.

When contacted, Kakani said he did not want to comment on the matter. The Education Minister did not respond to queries from The Indian Express on Kakani's departure. Puneet Dalmia, chairman of the institute's board of governors, did not respond to emailed queries from The Indian Express. However, records show that Kakani's departure was prompted by the fallout of disciplinary proceedings against a faculty member who was suspended last year. FULL REPORT ON WWW.INDIANEXPRESS.COM

No manipulation in AI 171 crash probe: Aviation Minister

SUKALP SHARMA NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 7 IN THE wake of questions being raised on the investigation and the preliminary report into the crash of Air India flight AI 171 by pilot associations and the father of one of the pilots of the ill-fated aircraft, Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu said Tuesday that there was no "manipulation" or "dirty business" being conducted in the probe that is being conducted by the Aircraft Accident Investigation

Bureau (AIB). "There is no manipulation or there is no dirty business happening in the investigation. It is a very clean and proper probe that is being done, according to the rules that have been set up. We are going to ensure that the committee will be maintained as it has been," Naidu said. The minister added that the AIB keeps a "thorough, transparent, and independent" approach, and that it "will not be influenced by any external report, instead of commenting on the preliminary report."

'Want India to be there': Palestine envoy seeks financial aid for Gaza

DINYAA NEW DELHI, OCTOBER 7 AS THE Israeli aggression in Gaza completes two years on October 7, and a plan has been announced by President Donald Trump to end the conflict, Palestine is now looking at India for financial help to rebuild Gaza as military action may come to a close. In fact, the Palestinian authority is now in talks with the Indian side to invest in Gaza, as part of a recently announced ceasefire led by Saudi Arabia. Talking to The Indian Express on Tuesday, Palestinian Ambassador to India, Abdullah Abu Shwehsh, said, "Saudi Arabia, France, Luxembourg and many other countries (have) already established an international to support the Palestinian government financially. We want India to be there in this coalition." Days before President Trump put forward the "Comprehensive Plan to End the Gaza Conflict" last week, Saudi Arabia announced the launch of an emergency international coalition to fund the Palestinian Authority (PA), which governs parts of the Israeli-occupied West Bank. Speaking at a press conference in New York on the sidelines of the 78th UN General Assembly, Saudi Foreign Minister Prince Abdul Fattah said the coalition would provide direct financial support to the PA "with a number of important partners". Saudi will contribute $500 million for the effort. Shwehsh said the Palestinian Authority would like India to be part of this coalition, talking about his conversation with officials in the Ministry of External Affairs last week. "This is the most significant time for a country like India, the champion of the South, to jump and say that we are going to invest heavily in this, we will say with the Palestinian authority," he said. Although the envoy added that India already brings $5 million each year to "the United Nations entity that is dealing with the Palestinian refugees, but when it came to this new coalition, we would like India to be there."
