STRONG DOLLAR, RISING US YIELDS SENT RUPEE TO RECORD LOW

Sinking rupee, surging oil drive indices to 7-mth low

● Sensex plunges over 1,000 points, Nifty declines 345 points

KISHOR KADAM
Mumbai, January 13

BENCHMARK EQUITY INDICES

on Monday crashed to a seven-month low as a strong dollar and rising US yields sent the rupee to a fresh record low, surpassing the 86-mark for the first time. Additionally, a rise in oil prices due to new sanctions imposed by the US on Russia further weakened the sentiment.

Investors' wealth was eroded by ₹12.61 lakh crore, reducing India's market capitalisation to ₹41.7 lakh crore—the highest erosion since August 5. In dollar terms, the total market capitalisation on the BSE fell below $5 trillion (to $4.82 trillion) for the first time since June 04.

After opening 750 points lower, the Sensex remained in negative territory throughout the session and finally closed at 76,330.01, falling 1,048.90 points or 1.36%. The NSE's Nifty also declined 345.55 points or 1.47% to 23,085.95.

The broader market was hit the hardest on Monday, as the BSE Midcap and BSE Smallcap indices both fell by over 4%.

FALL OVER 4%

As many as 3,562 stocks declined, while 555 advanced and 131 remained unchanged on the BSE. Also, 508 stocks hit their 52-week lows while 120 stocks reached the one-year high level. The overall market breadth was negative, with more than six losers for every gainer on the BSE.

Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) continued their selling spree, net selling equity shares worth ₹4,893 crore on Monday, while Domestic Institutional Investors (DIIs) pumped in ₹8,066 crore, as per provisional exchange data.

So far in 2025, FPIs have net sold ₹23,157 crore ($2.7 billion), while DIIs have bought ₹32,282 crore.

Barring four stocks, all stocks in the Sensex and Nifty basket ended in the red. Zomato, Power Grid, and Adani Ports were the top Sensex losers, each falling over 4%, while Axis Bank, TCS, HUL, and IndusInd Bank were the only gainers, rising up to 0.78%.

The rupee fell by 61 paise or 0.71% to 86.58, marking its biggest single-day loss in nearly two years. It was the worst performer among its Asian peers.

The US' most aggressive sanctions on Russia's oil industry to date are expected to impact major importers like China and India. As a result of these measures, benchmark Brent crude oil futures prices soared to a five-month high, surpassing the $81 mark on Monday.

Other Asian markets such as Seoul, Shanghai and Hong Kong settled lower. Markets in Japan were closed for a holiday.

European markets were quoting in the red. US markets ended in the negative territory on Friday.

"US sanctions on Russian oil exports pushed the rupee to a fresh low against the dollar, which in turn triggered a massive correction in domestic equity markets as overseas investors continued to desert the local share market," said Prashanth Tapse, Senior VP (Research), Mehta Equities.

Rising crude oil prices are expected to raise concerns about a spike in domestic inflation, which could further delay any hopes of a rate cut from the RBI in the near to medium term, Tapse added.

All sectoral indices on the BSE and NSE posted losses on Monday. Realty, with a 6.6% fall, was the worst-performing sector, followed by utilities, services, power, industrials, and consumer discretionary, each falling by over 4%.

Bond yield logs biggest single-day rise in 7 mths

DHARAMRAJ DHUTIA
Mumbai, January 13

GOVERNMENT BOND YIELDS marched higher on Monday, with the benchmark yield logging its biggest single-session rise in over seven months, as US Treasury yields continued to rally after robust economic data, while a tumbling rupee also weighed on sentiment.

The 10-year yield ended at 6.85%, its highest since November 22, compared with its previous close of 6.7724%. The yield posted its biggest single-session rise since June 4.

"There are negative factors for bonds on all fronts as crude oil is rising, US yields are rising and the local currency is declining, leading to selling pressure," said Gopal Tripathi, head of treasury and capital markets at Jana Small Finance Bank. "Till the time we do not see any recovery in the rupee and US rates, Indian bond yields are expected to see more upticks."

Brent crude prices rose above $80 a barrel to their highest in more than four months, driven by wider US sanctions on Russian oil. The rupee ended at a fresh record low of 86.6750 and posted its worst single-day decline in over two years on Monday, bogged down by a surge in the US dollar, likely outflows from local equities and limited intervention from the central bank. The 10-year US Treasury yield rose to its highest since November 2023 on Monday after US jobs growth unexpectedly accelerated in December. —REUTERS

Re fall casts shadow over policy rate cuts

ANUPREKSHA JAIN & SACHIN KUMAR
Mumbai, January 13

A SIGNIFICANT DEPRECIATION in the rupee could defer rate cuts by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), as it fuels inflation by making imports more expensive. This will create additional obstacles for the RBI in its efforts to control rising prices, say experts. According to RBI estimates, a 5% depreciation in the rupee could lead to a 35-bps increase in headline inflation over several quarters.

"It is possible that the RBI may defer the rate cut from February to the first quarter of FY26. Now that rupee has already crossed the 86-mark, it can certainly weigh on the central bank's decision on the rate cut," said Aditya Vyas, chief economist at STCI Primary Dealership. Although the apex bank changed its monetary policy stance to 'neutral' from 'withdrawal of accommodation' in October, it has kept the repo rate unchanged at 6.5% since February 2023 due to high inflation.

"Our call is that the RBI may not cut in February because of higher December inflation prints and there are some signs of growth picking up in the second half," said Sakshi Gupta, principal economist at HDFC Bank. "Given this context combined with what is happening globally, perhaps, the focus in the coming policy would be on liquidity."

A cut in interest by the RBI will soften bond yields while the Fed is likely to undertake fewer rate cuts after better-than-expected jobs data reported on Friday. This will make domestic assets less attractive for foreign investors, resulting in outflows.

US sanctions on Russia crude: Oil jumps to over $80

ANNA HIRTENSTEIN
London, January 13

THE OIL SAGA

OIL EXTENDED GAINS for a third session on Monday, with Brent crude rising above $80 a barrel to its highest in more than four months, driven by wider US sanctions on Russian oil and the expected effects on exports to top buyers India and China.

Brent crude futures rose $1.48, or 1.9%, to $80.96 a barrel after hitting the highest level since August 27 at $81.49. Brent and WTI have climbed more than 6% since January 8, surging on Friday after the US Treasury imposed wider sanctions on Russian oil. The new sanctions included producers Gazprom Neft and Surgutneftegas, and 183 vessels that have shipped Russian oil, targeting revenue Moscow has used to fund its war with Ukraine.

Russian oil exports will be hurt severely by the new sanctions, pushing China and India to source more crude from West Asia, Africa and the Americas, which will boost prices and shipping costs, traders and analysts said. "There are genuine fears in the market about supply disruption. The worst case scenario for Russian oil is looking like it could be the realistic scenario," said an analyst. —REUTERS

DHANANJAY DESHMUKH, the brother of slain sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh, staged a protest in Massajog village in Beed on Monday and demanded the authorities to provide critical information regarding his brother's murder investigation. Dhananjay, along with several other villagers, climbed a government water tank and called out the main accused, Walmik Karad, to be charged with murder and demanded that the latter be booked under the Maharashtra Control of Organized Crime Act (MCOCA).

They chanted slogans, calling for swift action against Karad. Maratha quota activist Manoj Jarange Patil also arrived to support the Deshmukh family, urging Dhananjay to end the protest.

The protest ended after Beed Superintendent of Police Navneet Kanwat assured the family that Deputy Inspector General (DIG) of Police Basaraj Teli, who leads the Special Investigation Team (SIT) of the Crime Investigation Department (CID) handling the case, would meet the family on Tuesday and discuss the ongoing investigation.

lagers, expressed concern over the adequacy of the investigation and raised suspicions that the government might be shielding the accused.

They specifically demanded that Walmik Karad, an associate of Minister Dhananjay Munde, be formally charged with murder and MCOCA.

At present, Karad faces charges only in an extortion case, for allegedly attempting to extort Rs 2 crore from the Avada Green Energy Company.

So far, seven individuals have been arrested in connection with the sarpanch murder case, though one remains at large.

Santosh Deshmukh was abducted and killed on December 9, reportedly as a result of his efforts to thwart an extortion attempt by the accused.

'JUSTICE FOR DESHMUKH' RALLY PLANNED ON SAME DAY

NCP likely to shift meeting from Sambhajinagar to Shirdi or Mumbai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

A PROTEST march that is planned in Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar, seeking justice to murdered sarpanch Santosh Deshmukh in Beed, is likely to force the ruling Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) to shift its two-day state party meeting in the city to either Shirdi or Mumbai.

Last week, the NCP had announced that it would hold a two-day party meeting at Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar on January 18 and 19. This was to be the first meeting of the party after its victory in the Assembly polls.

However, an all-community inclusive protest march demanding justice in the case of murder of Santosh Deshmukh has also been planned in the city on January 19. The protest is in continuation of the ongoing rallies taking place in different cities of the state. NCP Minister Dhananjay Munde is being cornered in this case after his close aide Walmik Karad is arrested in a case linked to the murder.

Demands have been made for Munde's resignation from the state cabinet for impartial inquiry into the case.

However, the NCP has refused to bulk under pressure and refused to take his resignation.

With protests being planned in the city at a time when the entire leadership of the party was in town, the possibility of the situation going out of hand has forced the NCP to rethink the location of the meeting.

Start planning for Nagpur-Goa Expressway: CM to PWD officials

Previous Mahayuti govt had kept project in abeyance over land acquisition woes

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

SIX MONTHS after the previous Mahayuti government decided to keep in abeyance the 802-kilometre greenfield highway project, the Shaktipeeth Highway connecting Nagpur to Goa, amid rising opposition from stakeholders whose lands were to be acquired for the project, the newly sworn in Devendra Fadnavis government has decided to revive the project with a directive being given to officials of the Public Works Department (PWD) to initiate planning for the ambitious project.

The expressway is a Rs 80,000-crore project that will connect Pavnar in Wardha district in Nagpur division to Patradevi in Sindhudurg district. The road will pass through 11 districts — Wardha, Yavatmal, Hingoli, Nanded, Parbhani, Latur, Beed, Dharashiv, Solapur, Kolhapur and Sindhudurg.

Of the 8,419 hectares required for the project, nearly 8,100 is private agriculture land. There had been continuous protests from farmers and leaders across the political spectrum, including those from the ruling coalition, who had supported the farmers which had led to the Eknath Shinde government in June 2024 deciding to keep the project in abeyance.

On Monday, at a meeting presided by Fadnavis, where he reviewed the work to be done by the Public Works Department in the next 100 days, he directed that the work on the expressway be expedited. He said the project will provide communication facilities and business opportunities in the state, as well as boost tourism on a large scale and hence the officials should expedite the work on the project by taking all parties concerned into confidence.

Fadnavis further emphasised the importance of high-quality construction for highways and road networks in Maharashtra, including the Shakti Peeth Expressway, which will connect key pilgrimage sites, promote tourism, and foster economic growth.

In addition, he instructed that the final 76 kilometres of the Mumbai-Nagpur Samruddhi Expressway be completed promptly, with the entire stretch expected to open by February. He also called for the speedy completion of the 13.3 km stretch on the Mumbai-Pune Expressway, which is crucial for passenger convenience.

The Chief Minister also focused on improving other vital infrastructure, including the Nashik-Mumbai National Highway, urging officials to complete upgrades without delay. Additionally, he re-quested the commencement of construction for a new seven-storey building in the Mantralaya area within the next 100 days.

Fadnavis further directed that the land acquisition process for road construction should proceed using a Build-Operate-Transfer (BOT) model, and emphasised the use of advanced technology to ensure quality and efficiency in all projects.

Public Works Minister Shivendrasinh Raju Bhosale affirmed that the department would prioritise high-quality, speedy construction while adhering to transparency and strict timelines. He also noted that passenger facilities, including women's restrooms, would be prioritised on highways.

Selfless service, hardwork key to success, says Governor

ONE YEAR SINCE INAUGURATION

Atal Setu records avg daily traffic at 22,689 vehicles, lower than projected

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

A YEAR since its inauguration, Atal Setu or Mumbai Trans Harbour Sealink (MTHL) has recorded an average daily traffic of 22,689 vehicles, falling short of initial expectations.

Inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on January 13, 2024, the 22-km Atal Setu was expected to record 40,000 daily users in its opening year, according to a study conducted by the MMRDA and Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA).

According to MMRDA officials, in its first year, the MTHL, India's longest sea bridge connecting Sewri in Mumbai to Chirle in Navi Mumbai, saw 83 lakh vehicles plying on it.

The highest single-day traffic recorded was 61,807 vehicles on January 14, 2024, shortly after its inauguration.

Experts attribute the low traffic to the high toll fees, which range from Rs 200 to Rs 250 for a one-way trip depending on the route.

A round-trip for passenger cars costs Rs 300, with daily passes priced at Rs 500 and monthly passes at Rs 10,000.

In comparison, the alternate road via the Vashi Toll Naka offers similar travel times between Mumbai and Navi Mumbai but without the added toll costs.

The state government's recent decision to exempt smaller vehicles from Mumbai from all five entry points including Vashi Toll Naka fees has further influenced traffic patterns, contributing to the low uptake of the MTHL. The MTHL, designed to integrate Mumbai and Navi Mumbai economically, and improve connectivity to areas like Panvel, Alibaug, Pune, and Goa, is still in its early days.

The bridge features state-of-the-art infrastructure, including an Advanced Traffic Management System (ATMS), Fire-Rescue Vehicles (FRVs), and 24*7 maintenance and patrolling teams that ensure smooth operations and quick incident resolution.

MMRDA officials remain hopeful that traffic will increase once ongoing infrastructure projects are completed.

The Worli-Sewri elevated road, set to connect Worli Sea Face to the Atal Setu, is nearing completion and will provide a faster 5-10 minute route to the bridge. Additionally, the extension of the road between the Chirle Interchange and the Mumbai-Pune Expressway will likely enhance connectivity, making the MTHL a crucial link for travelers to South Mumbai, the western suburbs, and beyond.

TO FOCUS ON STRENGTHENING CADRE

Shinde Sena plans organisational revamp in Mumbai ahead of BMC polls

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

AFTER ITS sweeping success in the recent Assembly elections, the Eknath Shinde-led Shiv Sena is gearing up for the crucial local body polls, including the highly anticipated Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) elections. In a key meeting held at Rangsharada Hall, Bandra, the party leadership outlined a comprehensive plan to reorganize and strengthen its cadre in Mumbai.

The meeting, attended by MPs, MLAs, deputy leaders, and key office-bearers, saw MP Dr Shrikant Shinde, Shiv Sena's group leader in the Lok Sabha, emphasise the need for a robust organisational framework. He highlighted that a strong and unified structure at every level of the party would be vital for securing a decisive victory in the municipal elections.

Dr Shinde discussed electoral strategies with office-bearers, urging them to intensify efforts in mobilising the grassroots and bolstering the party's outreach across the city.

Rally on Thackeray's birth anniversary

As part of its strategy to energise the cadre, Shiv Sena announced a grand rally at the Bandra Kurla Complex on January 23, commemorating the birth anniversary of Hindu Hriday Samrat Balasaheb Thackeray. At the event, the party's chief and Deputy Chief Minister, Eknath Shinde, will felicitate winning MLAs and MPs.

Shiv Sena leader Ramdas Kadam revealed plans for a membership registration campaign in Mumbai, which will run from January 24 to February 9, targeting record participation.

Kadam also hinted at imminent organisational changes, including a review and potential reshuffling of office-bearers to ensure greater efficiency ahead of the polls.

Key leaders in attendance

Prominent leaders such as MP Naresh Mhaske, MP Ravindra Waikar, former MP Gajanan Kirtikar, Rahul Shewale, Shiv Sena social media state head Rahul Kanal, MLA Dr Manisha Kayande, MLA Prakash Surve, MLA Mangesh Kudalkar, MLA Murji Patel, former MLA Sada Saravankar, Meenatai Kambli, and Sheetal Mhatre were present, along with other senior office-bearers.

Kadam slams Uddhav
In a significant development, Shiv Sena leader Ramdas Kadam accused Uddhav Thackeray of betraying the party's ideology by aligning with the Congress. Kadam argued that Thackeray no longer has the moral authority to serve as chairman of the government-funded Balasaheb Thackeray Memorial. A resolution calling for Thackeray's removal was passed at the meeting and will be submitted to Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis for further action.

With its sights set on the party's chief and Deputy Chief Minister, Eknath Shinde, will felicitate winning MLAs and MPs. Kadam also hinted at imminent organisational changes, including a review and potential reshuffling of office-bearers to ensure greater efficiency ahead of the polls.

BEST bus services disrupted over 'assault' on depot manager

SIDDHANT KONDUSKAR
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

EMPLOYEES OF BEST bus depots in Pratiksha Nagar and Dharavi on Monday staged a flash strike after a depot manager was allegedly assaulted by a bus conductor and secretary of a workers' union.

The flash strike caused disruptions in services of around 110 buses in Pratiksha Nagar and 100 in Dharavi depots.

The protesting employees are also raising the issue of low salaries and delayed payments.

Depot manager of Mateshwari Bus Company at Pratiksha Nagar depot Salim Khatri was allegedly assaulted on January 10 during a meeting involving the Secretary of the Mathadi Workers' Union, Pradeep Magare, and a female bus conductor, Brihanmumbai Electric Supply and Transport (BEST) spokesperson said.

Supriya Kadam, a conductor at Pratiksha Nagar depot, had requested a reassignment to light duties within the depot due to her pregnancy.

During the meeting, an argument broke out resulting in Magare and Kadam allegedly assaulting Khatri inside the depot manager's cabin, the BEST spokesperson said adding that the matter was reported to the Wadala Truck Terminal Police Station.

The police have started probing the matter and were in the process of filing a case.

Meanwhile, employees from the Pratiksha Nagar and Dharavi depots staged a flash strike on Monday. Suhas Samant, leader of the BEST workers' union, stated that the protest is spreading to other depots, and urged BEST apex officials to step in and address the situation.

Bus conductors and drivers, working for the wet lease company Mateshwari Urban Transport, claimed that their salaries are not being paid on time.

Under the wet lease model, private operators are responsible for the maintenance of buses and the payment of drivers' salaries.

MSRTC to add 2,640 buses this year, to prioritise cleanliness, safe travel

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, JANUARY 13

THE MAHARASHTRA State Road Transport Corporation (MSRTC) is set to strengthen its services as it plans to add 2,640 new buses this year in a bid to offer relief to commuters across the state, with special focus on prioritising "cleanliness" and "safe travel", Transport Minister Pratap Sarnaik said.

While the MSRTC has plans to add 3,500 buses, it will add 2,640 new MSRTC-owned buses to its fleet, with the first batch of 17 "Lalpari" buses inaugurated on Monday.

By the end of January, 150 buses will cater to depots in Thane city and rural Thane areas. Following this, 300 buses will be added monthly, ensuring their availability across the state.

"This year, 2,460 new buses will join the ST fleet, and soon you will see the new Lalpari running on every road across the state," said Sarnaik, during the inauguration of the National Road Safety Campaign, highlighting a phased modernisation plan to improve transportation services.

Sarnaik further emphasised the importance of enhancing facilities for MSRTC employees as part of the modernisation process.

"Prioritising cleanliness and safe travel, we are crafting a master plan to transform the entire state transportation system. The modernisation will be in phases with the ST employees being first beneficiaries. These plans include upgrading uniforms, restrooms, and other workplace amenities to ensure improved passenger service," Sarnaik said.

The minister also announced plans to build a 100-bed hospital in Borivali for MSRTC employees and their families. This facility will provide healthcare services in collaboration with the state health department.

The new buses are part of MSRTC's recovery from a challenging period. The fleet size had dropped from 18,000 in 2018 to 14,000 due to financial constraints and aging vehicles during the Covid-19 pandemic.

To address this, MSRTC has decided to purchase 2,200 buses and lease another 1,300. Out of these, 2,460 will be integrated into the fleet this year, and the rest in phases until next year.
